

Australian Asian Association Victoria and Australia Malaysia Business Council Sabah Trip Itinerary Aug 2016

SABAH, Malaysia:

This great East Malaysian state on Borneo Island is naturally endowed with endless beaches and bays, ancient rainforests and amazing plants and animals, and the sacred Mt Kinabalu.

Climate:

Sabah does not have distinct wet or dry seasons. It is warm throughout the year with occasional tropical rain-showers or rainstorms - usually in the afternoons cooling the air and keeps the rainforests green. Summer clothes are recommended.
